KENTUCKY KERNELS

The members of the Green River association of A. S. E. have pledged themselves to raise no tobacco in 1908.

R. M. Kuykendall, a rural route carrier out of Owensboro, was accidentally shot by some bird hunters and may lose his eyesight.

Allie Martin, a merchant of Williams town, Grant county, last week shipped 500 bushels of walnuts and 50 bushels of hickory nuts to a New York buyer.

At Williamsburg, Jim Tom Wagner was given nineteen years in the penitentiary for killing Millard Hatmaker last June. The trial lasted only two days.

Cleveland Wells, a farmer of Butler county, and wife were jailed last week, charged with infanticide. They had a quarrel during which their 3-month-old child was killed.

Col. A. W. Hamilton, of Montgomery county, left last week for Los Angeles, Cal., to act as presiding judge at the racing meeting now being held at the Arcadia race track.

Jim Howard, serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for complicity in Gov. Goebel's assassination, has been taken to Georgetown to testify in the case against Caleb Powers.

Wm. J. Gillespie, who recently died in Garrard county, willed his entire estate, valued at $50,000, to St. Joseph's infirmary, Louisville. His wife died last May, and he had no near relatives.

Kentucky ranks ninth among the corn producing states, according to a bulletin just issued. This year's corn crop reached 87,392,000, the average yield per acre being 28 bushels against 33 last year.

John Morgan, former marshal of Morgantown, who was working out a fine of $425 on the streets for illegal liquor selling, made his escape one day last week, and is thought to have gone to Texas.

Somewhere between Frankfort and Louisville is a package containing money with which to pay off Jefferson county teachers for their work done in October. Just where it is is worrying state and local officials.

Trains on the Knoxville branch of the L. & N. railroad are being policed to put a stop to the bringing of liquor into dry towns. There is not a license or wet town on the entire line between Winchester, Ky., and Atlanta, Ga.

The monument which will be erected to the memory of William Goebel has been completed and the committee which had its construction in charge held a meeting in Frankfort and decided to hold the ceremonies unveiling it in May, the exact date to be fixed later.

Morgan Nance, a well-to-do farmer near Slaughter, was the victim of a horrible accident in a sawmill near his home. He was adjusting a log in front of a large circular saw when he fell forward over the log in front of the saw. His body was cut to pieces, death being instantaneous.

It is announced that one of the important bills to come before the next legislature will be to prohibit any officeholder from serving as state, county or city committeeman for any political party. The bill will be strongly opposed by all party leaders as it will have a tendency to break up machine rule.

The argument in the case of the Eastern Kentucky Coal Lands Corporation vs. The Commonwealth was heard in the Court of Appeals last week. The appellee claim that the 432,000 acres of land involved have been in possession of the present owners and a direct line of former owners for over 100 years, and that taxes have been paid on the land for that period, and to now come in and say that an old land grant of 125 years ago gives a prior title to the land would cause chaos in Eastern Kentucky, and all land titles heretofore regarded as secure would be worthless. The appellants say they are only trying to protect their legal title to these lands.

About two and one-half miles from the little village of Crab Orchard stands the oldest brick house in Kentucky. It was built by Col. William Whitley in 1783. Col. Whitley was one of the first settlers of Kentucky. He was a comrade of Boone, Kenton, Henderson and Clark. After leaving the forts of Boonesboro and Logan he came to the present site of Crab Orchard and erected the first brick house in the state, says the Stanford Interior Journal. Mr. Whitley went to Virginia to secure the material with which to furnish his house. The house is very quaintly built and is ornamented with many carvings. On each end of the house glazed brick are arranged as to form diamonds, which adds much to its appearance. The windows are built seven feet from the ground as a protection from the Indians. The doors are made of two layers of plank put on a frame diagonally and driven full of nails. As no locks were obtainable in those days, bars were used to fasten the doors.

CAMPTON CURRENCY.

Capt. W. L. Hurst is at Stanton on legal business this week.

S. S. Rose, of Stillwater, was in town on business yesterday.

Supt. W. H. Chambers was in town Saturday writing checks for the public school teachers.

C. P. Combs returned from Frankfort last Wednesday evening after an absence of a few days.

I. R. Hollon, circuit court clerk, returned Sunday from Ezel, where he had been hunting birds with Dr. W. G. Lockhart, whose guest he was during the past week.

The Henry Horton oil well, being drilled by Marshall & Spencer, will be completed this evening. This will be a test for quite an extensive territory on Devil creek.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following persons since our last letter: Osa Spencer and Dora Tolson; S. H. Hurst and Mary Swango; Courtney Smith and Gracie Nickell.

County Judge G. T. Center last week appointed the following supervisors of the tax books for the year 1908: John J. Tutt, T. F. Stamper, J. J. Wells, O. W. McNabb and Joel S. Cox.

T. B. Hanks, of Devil's creek, has just returned from New Mexico, whither he had gone for his health. He did not stay long enough, however, to note any decided change for the better.

Jailer W. G. Halsey has just made discovery which explains the means of the escape of Martin Fugate from jail last week. The discovery consists in two wooden keys, made of hard locust timber, which unlock the cell doors readily, and which had been thrown aside when their purpose was accomplished. The kind of keys required was determined by inserting a damp piece of sole leather into the keyhole and thus making the proper impressions on the leather. The piece of leather was also found.

The following persons were registered at the Central Hotel during the past week: J. S. Warnick; J. L. Prentiss, Versailles; A. Stroley, Louisville; D. C. Horton, Bryan, O.; B. W. Trimble, Mt. Sterling; Howard H. Porter, Huntington, W. Va.; Robt. Childers, Maytown; M. F. Horton, Campton; G. W. Lovelace, Stillwater; J. I. Rosenthal, Chicago; J. M. Lering, Smithville, Tenn.; E. W. Tolson, Ft. Thomas; Geo. Bowman, Somerset; Thos. F. Wilson, Campton; W. H. Chambers, Stillwater.

The case of Wolfe Co. vs. T. M. Beckett, etc., appealed from the Wolfe Circuit court, was last week reversed by the Court of Appeals, Commissioner Clay writing the opinion of the court. This decision is an important one to Wolfe county, as it decides for the first time in the state's history that the owners of oil and gas leases must pay taxes thereon. Under this decision the county will this year collect over $300 more of taxes from the oil producers than it would have been allowed to collect under the decision of Circuit Judge Riddell last spring, and it sets a precedent for taxation in the future that means many dollars in taxes from the wealthy oil producers. The county was represented in this suit by County Atty G. B. Stamper and Atty S. G. Sample, both of this county, and the oil men—Beckett, Garver and Morehead—by the law firms of Fulks & Hovermale and Gourley, Redwine & Gourley and Atty T. C. Johnson.

MIZE MITES.

Born, to the wife of Geo. Trimble, a bouncing fine boy.

Born, to the wife of Joe Lee Oldfield, a girl, on the 20th.

Corn husking is the greatest push at the present in this neighborhood.

J. A. Oldfield recently bought a nice lot of hogs for the Jackson market.

Wm. Childers, one of Maytown's hustling drummers, was calling on our merchants Monday.

Curtis Oldfield will, in a few days, move to near Woodward, Ia., to engage in farming, having heretofore rented 190 acres of land.

The Richmond Cooperage Co. has suspended business at the mill near Wm. Pack's and will operate the mill at Grassy creek for a while and then close down for the winter.

Large numbers of natives of this section are returning from most all over the entire western and central states. They say the financial tear up has caused work to be suspended at most all public works.

A large crowd attended an entertainment at Murphy school house, Saturday night, given by E. H. Oldfield with his new outfit, consisting of a stereopticon and moving picture machine, which was first class.

Willie Turley and wife, of Mt. Sterling, accompanied by Sam Holton and Miles Mackey, of the same place, visited the home of E. H. and Andrew Oldfield for a few days and engaged in killing quails for amusement, of which they got a nice number.

James Hurt, who lives on Murphy fork, met with a very severe, if not fatal, accident while hunting, one day last week. A Mr. Dalton with him fell and accidentally discharged his gun, the load tearing away all the top of his shoulder. Drs. Curt and W. L. Gevedon, assisted by Drs. Nickell and Williams, of Hazel Green, dressed the wound and think he will recover.

DAYSBORE DOINGS.

H. B. Little is still on the sick list.

Miss May Nickell was seen in town Friday.

Miss Laura Davidson was in town shopping, Thursday.

Bruce May was calling on his best girl, Miss Maude Fallen, at Neola, Sunday.

The sunny smiles of Miss Aquila Haddix, of Grassy, were seen in our midst, Sunday.

Logan Shockey passed through here Friday on route to Hazel Green on business.

Misses Dora and Bessie Sebastian made a flying business trip to Hazel Green, Thursday.

Sam Wilson came into our little town last week and done some painting for S. C. Alexander.

Report comes to us from Rose school house that Edgar Alexander gives satisfaction as a teacher.

We had the pleasure of hearing Miss Blanche Taulbee, an accomplished musician, render some delightful airs on the organ at the home of S. C. Alexander, Sunday. Her singing was excellent. The room was packed to see and hear this talented musical artist.

The last we heard of Callaway is that he was still at the Good Samaritan hospital in Lexington. The bullets went through both lungs and are now covered up in blood and his chance for recovery is very doubtful. J. H. Sebastian, his father, left on the noon train, Sunday, to go to him.

Heart Weakness.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has made many hearts well after they have been pronounced hopeless. It has completely cured thousands, and will almost invariably cure or benefit every case of heart disease.

Short breath, pain around heart, palpitation, fluttering, dizzy, fainting and smothering spells should not be neglected. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and see how quick you will be relieved.

It cannot make a new heart, but will restore a sick one by strengthening the heart nerves and muscles, relieving the unnatural strain, and restoring its vitality.

"I had a very bad case of heart trouble. For six months I could not work. Last July I was plowing corn and feeling bad all day; in the afternoon in plowing one row I had to lay down, or fall down, three times. My heart throbbed as though it would burst through, and I had difficulty in getting my breath. I purchased a bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and before I had used half of it I could lay down and sleep all night. Previously I had to get up from five to ten times a night. I have taken several bottles, and my heart is as regular as clock work. I feel like a new man, and can work considerably for an old man, 84½ years old."

H. D. MCGILL, Frost, Ohio.
Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

If the wealth of the world were evenly distributed, says a statistician, it would mean about six dollars to each inhabitant.

Since the beginning of the money stringency, a few weeks since, nearly $80,000,000 in gold have been brought to this country from Europe, and there is still more on the way.

Complete election returns have been received and tabulated by the secretary of state. Following is the vote for governor: Hager, 196,428; Willson, 211,481; majority, 18,053.

It now transpires that a New York archaeologist has discovered that the eagle on the St. Gauden's ten dollar gold piece is the exact replica of that on the gold coin during the time of Ptolemy I, who reigned 250 years B. C.

Volume I, No. 2, of the Knott County News reached this office last week. It is a neatly printed, well gotten up, 5-column folio, published at Hindman, by E. P. and Chas. Blair. We wish them success in the journalistic field.

The Court of Appeals in the case of Wolfe County vs. Beckett and others, decided that oil and gas well outputs are taxable and that the lessee and lessor of the property must pay the taxes in the proportion they take the output; that is, if the lessor gets one-tenth of the oil or gas he must pay one-tenth of the taxes.

Republicans, Please Explain.

The Democrats may be pardoned if they believe the scumbers of the present financial situation by a few jokes at the expense of the Republican leaders. They have been told so often by the curbstone Republican politicians that panics only come when the Democrats are in power—that Republican administrations always insure good times—that they must be allowed to smile a little at the very clear and unanswerable proof of the inability of the Republican leaders to insure against a panic. Here we are in the full enjoyment of a high tariff which taxes the whole country for the benefit of a few manufacturers, and yet we are not happy. We have the gold standard, which we were told was a panacea and sure preventive for all kinds of financial disturbances, and yet we are disturbed. We have the Republicans in power in the nation and in a majority of the states, and yet business is tied up.

We were told that confidence was all that was necessary and that Republican victories always gave confidence, and here we are with our confidence disturbed. What does it mean? Can the Republican party be fallible after all? Is it possible that Republican leaders may make mistakes? Can it be that Republican times are not always good times? The Republicans have claimed credit for sunshine and for shower, for favorable seasons and for beautiful crops. Upon whom will they throw the responsibility now if farmers have to haul their wheat back home because no one was willing to take it. In one town the Democrats recalled the cartwheel dollars that some of the local financiers used for an argument against silver in 1896, and begged the privilege of borrowing those dollars in the absence of ordinary currency.

Democrats can do their duty as citizens by counseling courage and patience, and by suggesting remedies that will furnish protection for the future, and yet, they can enjoy the fact that the present panic has exploded one of the most potent arguments that the Republicans have ever employed, namely—that a Republican administration insures good times and that a Democratic administration is necessarily a breeder of panics. The argument was not only contradicted by history, but was so absurd that it ought not to have deceived anyone, but it has deceived many. Exit this choice bit of buncombe that has done service in so many campaigns.—The Commoner.

Catarrah Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrah is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrah Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrah Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrah. Send for testimonials free.

MURPHY FORK MINUTES.

Davy Ross, of Nannie, has rented the Ben Murphy farm lately vacated by John Noble.

Berry Taulbee has returned to the creek after an absence of a year, satisfied there is no place like "Old Kaintuck."

Woodson Vest, of Bonny, visited his two daughters, Mrs. Ben Murphy, of this place, and Mrs. Wash Swango, of Neola, last week.

Dink Murphy, of Maytown, sold his store house and residence to Jim Little, of Blackwater, and is now in the blue grass looking for a location.

Last week Mort Cecil sold two export steers, weighing 200 pounds each, to Quilla Center. The price paid was $90, thus eclipsing the Mt. Sterling market.

Elamsville is the name of a little city being built by Jeff Calvin and Willis Elam. It is situated between the farms of Uncle Harry and Mrs. Nannie Murphy.

A Mr. Willoughby and a Mr. Tackett, living at Ticktown, got into a quarrel, one day last week, in which whisky was king. The result was that Willoughby shot Tackett in the breast, and is now in jail.

Ben Murphy says he has been in the cattle trade for twelve years and the last market was the worst he has ever seen. Ben being a full fledged Democrat will blame the Republicans for it before the governor-elect takes his seat.

Joe S. Warnock, representing the National Drug Co., Philadelphia, Pa., was a guest of the Day House over Sunday.

Anyone wishing to buy a good $2.00 razor can get one at $1.00, as long as they last, by applying at this office.

Uncle John Wilson, of Camp-ton, preached at the Methodist church Sunday night, and was the guest of Sam Kash and wife.

K. K. Spencer, representing the Western Lumber Co., of Cincinnati, headquarters at Lee City, was at the Day House Friday night.

Dr. Nickell reports the birth of a girl to the wife of Ed Smith, of Gillmore, Friday night, and they have named her Virginia Rose Smith.

Joe Cecil and wife, of Ezel, passed through town Monday, en route home from Gillmore, where they were visiting their son, Rollie Cecil, and wife.

Dr. Taylor Center reports the following births since our last issue: To the wife of Bill Sweeney, Nov. 20, a boy; to the wife of Bristol Shackelford, Nov. 23, a boy; to the wife of John Wallace, Nov. 24, a girl.

Cecil Bros. store caught fire Tuesday morning from the pipe through the ceiling and floor above and for a brief time things looked dangerous. Rats had dragged dry stuff around the pipe, between the joists, which ignited and caused the blaze. A few buckets of water put it out.

A Prosperous Church.

Bro. Derthick, principal of the Hazel Green Academy, preached to the congregation of the Christian church at Anderson, Ind., Sunday, the 17th inst., and he says it was one of the most remarkable congregations that ever assembled. One class at the Sunday school had 100 men, including the editors of two papers, president of the largest lumber company, and the foremen of three of the largest manufacturing. Another had 102 women in the class, many of them mothers. All told there were 500 grown people in the Sunday school. T. W. Grafton is the pastor, and eighteen months ago he held a revival, during which 1,200 people were added to the membership.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I began taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all leading dealers in Wolfe county. 50¢ and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Her Going is Regretted.

To the regret of the faculty and the boarders at the dormitory, especially the young ladies, and, in fact, all who know her, Miss South, the accomplished music teacher at the academy, last week severed her connection with that institution. This action was made necessary on account of her declining health, and she felt that she must go home and recuperate. Since her advent in this community she has, by her ladylike deportment and social qualities, endeared herself to all, and it was with heart-felt grief that her co-workers bid her good-bye when she left Friday for her home in Franklin county.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out a lot of money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alternative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by leading dealers of Wolfe county.

Accidentally Shot.

While hunting last Saturday, Jimmie Hurt, of the Murphy Fork, was accidentally shot by a young man who was with him, and the deltoid muscle of the right arm shot entirely off. It appears that the young man who shot him had flushed a flock of birds, and in turning to fire at them his foot slipped and the gun was discharged with above result. Drs. Nickell and Williams, of this place, and Drs. Gevedon, of Grassy, were called and dressed the arm, and the two former tell us that unless pyemia sets up he will have the use of his arm and that there is no danger of amputation.

Mrs. J. M. Rose and son, Curtis, with his wife, and Henry Ward, left Tuesday for White Oak, where they will visit for a few days, Curt and Henry meantime trying their marksmanship on the bobwhites of that creek.

Presiding Elder Southgate arrived here on Monday. He preached that night, Tuesday, Tuesday night, Wednesday and Wednesday night, and all who heard him were very much pleased with his pulpit accomplishments.

Prof. Starbuck, principal of the Scott Institute at West Liberty, came over Friday and Saturday, visited our academy, with the management of which he was well pleased, and Sunday and Sunday night he preached at the Christian church by request.

Miss Daisy Day has the thanks of the editor and his better seven-eighths for a grape fruit, a half-dozen navel oranges, a half-dozen kid-glove oranges and a dozen or more quamaquats, all the Florida fruit, and all of it delicious to THE HERALD palate.

Wm. "Fewclothes" Schooler, as he used to account for his middle name, once an employe of THE HERALD, is now on the Courier, a paper published at Lakeside, O., and begs that all papers of this section, which he denominates as "Kentucky's brainery," will exchange.

Cecil Bros. last week inaugurated a reduction sale which means that you can now buy goods at a great saving. They give prices on some articles in hand-bills, which you should see, and all who pay up or buy 50 cents worth have a chance at a $5 prize. Call at their store and learn how cheap they are now selling goods.

Charley Baker had the misfortune to saw off the ends of three of his fingers on Wynant's stove machine, on Lacy creek, Friday. Drs. Williams and Nickell were sent for and dressed the hand and he has been doing well since. He was removed to town and is now at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Roscoe Shackelford, where the physicians still look after his wounds.

John A. Adams, for many years a resident of our town, but living now in Lexington, passed through town Thursday en route to visit his father and mother, Uncle Johns Adams and wife of Maytown. He returned Friday and stopped at the Day House, where many friends called to see him and express their sympathy for the loss he sustained in the death of his son Curtis, who was a most noble boy.

A Significant Prayer.

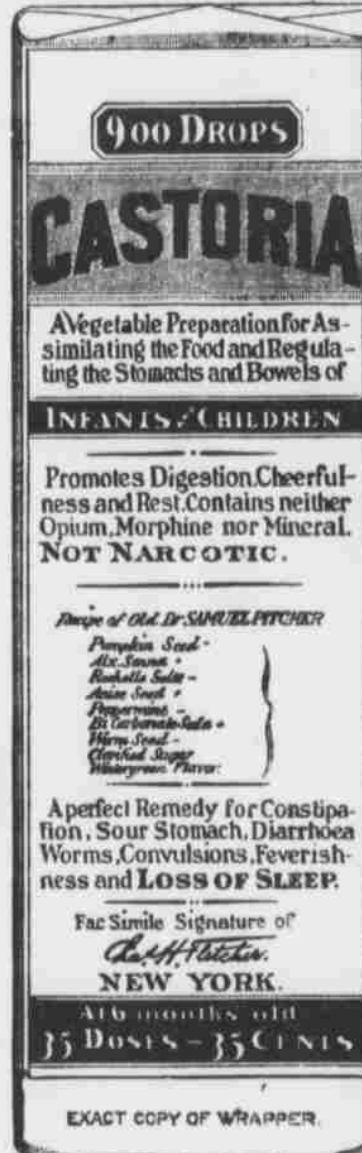

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. "It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c. at all the leading dealers in Wolfe county.

ONE DOLLAR BUYS "The Mountain People of Kentucky."

This popular book, which is now in its fourth edition, will for a limited time be sold for $1.00 the copy, postage prepaid to any point in the country. Press and people are loud in praise of it, and patriotism prompts many to buy it. Why not you? You will want it for your children.

No better testimony to the worth and success of that most admirable work done for the Kentucky mountaineers may be found than this book by Wm. H. Haney a mountain boy. Mr. Haney is 23 years old, he was born in Morgan County and is an excellent example of self reliance typical of his sturdy race. He has conquered difficulties of poverty and other hampering circumstances, defraying the expense of his own education by the work of his hands while he was at Hazel Green Academy, Berea and Kentucky State College. Meantime he has purchased a home for his father and mother, has written this book—and again it may be repeated that he is only in his twenty-fourth year.

Two purposes seem to animate the pages of this book: To describe mountain life as it actually is; and to correct the wrong impressions of it others have striven to folio on the public. Mr. Haney gives an historical sketch of the mountain people, attributing to inherited traits and the Kentucky environment the characteristics that distinguish them. Social conditions, Feuds, Industries, Education, Politics, Religion and the "Outlook," successfully afford Mr. Haney subjects for interesting discussion. He has known mountain life in its earlier conditions as well as in recent years when conditions have been somewhat improved, great as is still the need for more improvement and for earnest help from the outside world beyond the mountains. Though, indeed one of the wisest things Mr. Haney says is that it is not only help from beyond the mountains that is needed. As he suggests, that if the mountain people who have had the benefit of education will give some of their lives to those of their blood whom they understand better than alien teachers could do, this will be a decided gain for the mountain communities.

Mr. Haney writes in a direct style, in good English that reflects credit both on his own industry and his teachers. He is intelligent, sympathetic, optimistic and loyal in his considerations of the mountain people. He recognizes the need for industrial improvements, the teaching of scientific farming and other immediate needs as well as the higher needs of these people who offer such a splendid challenge to the worker in sociology, education and religion.—Courier-Journal.

Shall We Pay Taxes

to Support Our Schools?

Every nation has crystallized in its public institutions its ideals of life. Go into any community and you will find there the best interest of its people manifested in its public buildings and public exercises. If you find a community well supplied with athletic grounds, and games frequently provided, and little interest manifested in any other public enterprise, you conclude that the community is fond of athletic sports. If you enter another community and you find there well built churches, neatly and carefully kept, an educated ministry and large congregations in attendance upon the services, you conclude that you have entered a community where religion is prominent in the thoughts of the people. Were you to find, in another community, stores and all business houses open seven days in the week and every one entering the mad race for wealth, you would infer that the community in which you are found is given over to the worship of the almighty dollar. So, indeed, if the school building occupies a prominent site in any community, if its grounds are well kept, if the house is neatly furnished, if the desks are new and modern, if the corps of teachers is well educated and well paid, and if the community is taxing itself cheerfully and sufficiently well to keep the school going ten months in the year, you conclude that you are in a community that has placed the education of the young as its highest ambition. You know that you are among a people who are sufficiently patriotic and thoughtful for the welfare of their children to provide these things in common which alone can insure the continuation of our government and the increase of the best things among us.

It is needless for me to say that we need in Kentucky a better spirit toward our schools; that we need to provide for their material improvement with a freer hand. We need an educational awakening in our pocket books and our bank accounts, and this will come when we study the proper basis for taxation.

A good school in any community attracts to that community enterprising, well-to-do people who seek to take advantage of the school. If Kentucky would place herself in the most attractive position among her sisterhood of states, a great awakening along educational lines among her people will do more to accomplish this desired end than all other forces. She has already begun to feel the thrill of a better hope and a better purpose. The present generation will do well if it crystallizes Kentucky's highest ideals into sound and liberal legislation for her educational interests.
